

THE SYDNEYS

ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT
Leicester, UK • Indie Rock Trio

About

The Sydneys are an indie rock trio from the Midlands, formed during university at Leicester. Comprised of Eran (vocals/guitar), Joe (drums), and Josh (bass), they draw influence from late 80s/early 90s indie rock such as Dinosaur Jr., Guided by Voices, and Pixies. They've released a full-length album and an acoustic EP, played Leicester's O2 Academy, and recently delivered a live session for RawSound TV in Birmingham. Off the back of a packed release show for their latest single "Doctor Man," the band are now back in the studio recording new material.
